1 February 1950

MEMORANDUM FOR: BUDGET OFFICER

SUBJECT: Claim - Pennsylvania Railroad Company

1. Attached is a copy of a claim by the Pennsylvania Railroad against the Government for unpaid transportation costs incurred by them on Government bills of lading or Government requests. It was forwarded with the request from the Department of Justice for information in regard to these claims which should be furnished at the earliest opportunity. Two items - one relating to freight shipments for OSS and the other relating to passenger travel for CIA - are earmarked with paper clips.

2. Would you have these lists reviewed by the Fiscal Division for available information on these items, and any others in the attached list, which they may be able to identify as connected with this or our predecessor agencies.
